

Bling bling @ Curacao

Yes yes yes. Yes yes yes. I know I know I know.....I should have been writing my blogs more often and on a more regular basis. OK, one of the things that I should improve for 2013! I'm more a talker and the one who does things than a writer. Anyway, if you say you are doing a blog, then you have to write. Happy new year by the way.

Vegas in Curacao, it sounds nice and challenging. In Q2 of 2012 I got involved in this project which is a part of the Curacao Beach Resort. Curacao Beach Resort is also the "landlord" of DolfijnFM and Mambo Beach.

Vegas is situated on the 1st floor, exactly on top of DolfijnFM. People who know the spot; it's round. The bar wall is the only small part of the building with a wall. Around 5 meter. All other parts are open. The top has a double round ceiling, like 2 vinyl records on top of each other; a 12" with a large hole covered by a 7inch record. Everyone would like to have a golden record, so we painted the 12" gold, the 7inch in Blue. As said further no walls or other parts that cover, only round columns also painted in gold.

Before I forget to mention Vegas is Curacao's first real Cocktail bar with flair bartenders. You know them; the guys who show off with bottles to prepare your drink by shaking liquors, crushing, mixing, spinning bottles in a dazzling way. Yes, just like Tom Cruise did in the eighties classic movie "Cocktail". Summarized; an open cocktail bar on the beach, which should have a Vegas feel. Nice challenging assignment.

In the middle we created a 3 way solution, a round object which is a lounge sofa, a railing and bar table in one. Beside that we created different sit/hang/lounge comforts at Curacao's future bling bling spot with various bar stools at the bar and central part. Several nice chairs & tables just to sit and chat about the people passing by on the long and wide organic shaped boulevard.

Delicate & traditional but innovative chairs produced in glossy polycarbonate surrounding lighting coffee tables in the shape of cocktail glasses. An indoor hang out in gold & silver with loads of fluffy colored cushions. Ultimate luxury sofas with the best romantic view sunset on the Island, enlightened by classic chandlers with LED suitable for outdoor. One small warning; once enter you don't wanna leave the sofas.

2 More things;

- You can't miss the Vegas celeb: "BACON" A design icon from Moooi & Front Design, legal name: Pig Table.
- Try the cocktails; that's why we designed all of it.
